You are invited to a walking week in the heart of Scotland

3rd-10th May

See the heart of Scotland at its best, in May. We are offering a week of walking, sight-seeing and socialising with Cherry Tree Lodge as the base. The provisional programme (dependent on weather and needs of the group) is as follows –

- Arrivals from 5pm, with dinner and opening circle in the evening
- a visit to Dunfermline
- a walk along the Fife Coastal Path to Anstruther and beyond
- a trip to Edinburgh or Glasgow
- a hike along the top of the Ochills with an evening of story telling by professional story-teller Beverley
- Kinnoull Hill in Perthshire and the River Tay, with the opportunity of a visit to the new V&A in Dundee
- hiking in the Highlands followed by dinner
- closing circle and departure.

Carriages are on Friday 10th after breakfast.
Accommodation is shared in light, airy and comfortable twin bed rooms.
Single occupancy supplements are available.

Payment:

There is an early bird rate at £545 until 27th March 2019 after which the rate is £575
