

GOC AOG 2020 in Stirling – Booking Instructions and Conditions V4

Bookings for accommodation, meals and the ceilidh will close on 1st June. Please do not make commitments for travel and other expenses until your booking is confirmed. Accommodation will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. We therefore urge you to book early to avoid disappointment.

When making your booking please:

- remember to give the names of all the people for whom you are booking
- specify any special dietary requirements you may have.

We have not included a booking form in Outdoors this year as the vast majority of members are now able to book online and dealing with offline bookings creates a disproportionate administrative burden. If you are unable to book online, please ask another GOC member to do so for you.

Policy on cancellations

Accommodation and breakfast:

- up to 1st June – full refund minus charge of £5 per person per night
- after 1st June – no refund unless we can resell your place, in which case the refund will be full amount minus charge of £5 per person per night

Evening meals (including ceilidh for the Saturday evening) and packed lunches:

- up to 30th June – full refund minus charge of £2 per meal
- after 30th June – no refund

Ceilidh (if booked separately by those not having the Saturday evening meal):

- up to 30th June – full refund minus charge of £2 per person
- after 30th June – no refund.

Please note - if you make a cancellation on line this will not generate an automatic refund to your payment card. The organiser has to process all refunds manually and it is likely to take him some time to get round to making the calculation and requesting the Treasurer to process any refund to your card.

Charge for lost keys and damage

Attendees who do not return their room keys when checking out will be charged £30 plus VAT. GOC will also charge attendees for any damage or unusual cleaning resulting from the actions of those attendees, where the university has charged GOC for this.
